In the name of Allaah, the Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy

Shaykh Muqbil's (رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ)¹ daughter said, "And he would say, 'I'm neglectful,' and, 'I'm not pleased with myself,' and he told us that after white hair started to appear on his beard he was pained at that, and said to himself, 'What have you done for Islaam and the Muslims?' And from his statements was, 'We are ignorant [of some things], have knowledge [of others], we are correct and we make mistakes.'"
